MUSICIAN KAREN FOWLIE RELEASES OLYMPIC INSPIRED “FIRE” TO COMMERCIAL RADIO TODAY

Vancouver: February 24, 2010 – Karen Fowlie is set to release her Olympic inspired song “Fire” to commercial radio later today. The song pays homage to the Olympic Athlete and how their achievements inspire people around them. “Fire” features a local children’s choir and an exuberant string arrangement also composed by Karen. She plans to celebrate the song’s release in a showcase with her band later today at the 2010 Olympics Plaza of Nations Stage (750 Pacific Blvd, Vancouver) from 4:00 to 4:30pm. Karen Fowlie is currently available for interviews and public appearances upon request. “Are you drawn to the flame, once you see the spark? Look! I’m on Fire...”
