

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INTRODUCING THE UNIQUE MUSICAL STYLINGS OF MUSICIAN/COMPOSER R. GALLO

Vancouver June 29, 2009 - Canadian musician and composer R. Gallo is a multi-instrumentalist who has been writing songs since the age of 13. As the youngest of four brothers and one sister (all great jazz musicians), Mr. Gallo had the privilege of growing up in a rich musical environment. Having been exposed to great jazz, pop artists and tunes from the 50's, 60's and 70's, he has always sought to write the kind of song that he himself would enjoy hearing.

Mr. Gallo seeks to bring back the musical innocence, integrity and an element of "feel-goodness" that seems to be lacking in this modern pop culture. Through the years, Mr. Gallo has been inspired to write a wide variety of musical styles and is capable of creating any piece of music at any given time for any given purpose, be it jazz, classical or rock. His songs are available for film, television and new media licensing.
