FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rave On Studio is excited to announce a New Film Project with Jonathan Fluevog!

Vancouver October 24th 2010 – Jenn Ashton of Rave On Studio and Jonathan Fluevog of Vogville Studio are pleased to announce their new documentary project: "unDiscovered the film". They also invite you to watch its progress and even be a part of it!

How does a band or artist make it out there in the music business today? Jenn Ashton and Jonathan Fluevog want to find out, so with the help of filmmaker Sam Soo they have turned the spotlight onto the progress of three of their up and coming bands: "Cupla", "The Light Machines" and "Matt Stanley And The Decoys".

"We hope this project will last three years, we plan on checking in with each group every six months." Ashton says. "There are so many factors involved in becoming successful in the music industry, especially today, we hope to shed some light on the process in order to help out other new artists".

To stay up-to-date, or to participate, check in on the website below where you'll find bios, info and the first of our videos!
